Divergent's story is built on the experience of its founders' early days in the language services industry working with partners, associates, and paralegals at the largest international law firms.

Having helped over 400 businesses across the globe, Divergent has grown from being an exclusive language services partner to the legal community to one that specializes in supporting an even greater community of professionals across multiple industries and regulated industries such as:

- Aerospace
- Agriculture
- Automotive
- Energy, Oil and Gas
- Finance
- Government
- Healthcare
- Insurance
- Life Sciences & Pharmaceuticals
- Engineering
- Manufacturing
- Real Estate
- Technology and Software
- Telecommunication

Moreover, we have grown to service professionals in a greater array of departments such as:

- Account & Project Management
- Communications & Public Relations
- Compliance
- Executive Management
- Information Technology
- Human Resources
- General Counsel and Legal Operations
- Operations
- Proposal Writing
- Risk Management
- Sales & Marketing
- Quality Control

Whether you are a corporate paralegal or a quality assurance manager at an energy provider, Divergent prides itself on decades-long relationships with the most qualified corporate, legal, financial, and technical translators in the world. This puts Divergent in a unique position to serve your specialized foreign language needs.
